For Congressman-at-Large, E. H. FUNSTON.

For Congressman.

We are informed this week that Sen. E. H. Funston has consented to allow his name to be used as a candidate for Congressman-at-large. It gives us pleasure to place his name at the head of the columns of this paper as a candidate—not only of this county, but we are well satisfied that of others as well.

In so doing we shall aim to briefly state the reasons for believing him to be the most available candidate, and without in the least reflecting upon the merits of anyone who may be hereafter, or any whose name is now being discussed.

E. H. Funston has represented Allen county three terms in the house of representatives, one term as speaker of the house. At present a member of the senate and speaker pro tem. In addition he has served upon the State Central Committee and in many ways threw his power into the canvass of the State. Of ripe experience and possessing a cool and well-balanced mind, his qualifications are of the highest order. He is recommended by four past nearly unanimous elections in this and Anderson county.

Mr. Funston at home in Deer Creek township of this county is a farmer (and a good one too), in all that the word implies; in town he is "Ed. Funston, our next congressman," in adjoining counties and throughout the State he is known as "Senator Funston, of Allen county, and a rising man." In the Senate he is recognized as one of the leading men of the State. Such, in brief, is the portrait of our candidate.

Without in any manner becoming a farmer or a granger candidate, yet he is the man around whom would rally the great mass of the Republican voters in the county. He would be their candidate because one of them. But also possessing a clear, logical mind he would be quick to reject the false issues of the demagogue and battle only for that which was of itself right.

Of extensive acquaintance throughout the State, and universally respected as an honest, straight-forward man, he possesses elements most rare to find. No chicanery, fraud or "dirt" has ever been laid at his door, but on the contrary a spotless reputation for truth and uprightness.

So far as Allen county is concerned there will be but one sentiment and that for Funston. And while making no factious opposition to any other candidate, we shall eagerly labor for his nomination.

That ardent prohibitionist, Gen. John H. Rice, of the Fort Scott Monitor, has become a bloated, haggard, red-eyed lubber. He opposes St. John for Governor. That is how it comes about.

It is said that the Kansas State Penitentiary is now self sustaining.

W. E. Lawrence will offer a large lot of personal property of every description, including stock, farm implements, and household goods at public sale, Thursday, May 4th, at the residence of the late J. B. Vinton, in Geneva township, 7 miles north-west of Iola. See sale bills.

Geo. and Willie Barth, two of the county's young farmers will accept our thanks for the first mess of lettuce and radishes, which were grown south-east of Iola. Boys of their age are not generally the ones who raise the first products of a season, without it should be from a convenient creek.

R. B. Thompson came in Wednesday evening from Urbana, Ill., having in charge Frank Brumley, a horse thief, who on the 29th of last August stole a horse from Oscar H. Jash, who lives four miles east of Humboldt. Thompson has been on the trail for a long time and finally succeeded in locating his bird. Brumley refuses to say anything about the affair, and the facts will be brought out at the next term of court.

Mr. Greenbaum's little girl was run over by the Central Hotel hack Tuesday evening, escaping however with slight injuries about the head. The driver of the hack did not notice the child until she was beneath the horses feet and did not dare to stop for fear she would be killed or trampled upon. As the little girl was playing with some companions it is presumed she ran blindly in front of the hack. As it was heavily loaded her escape was fortunate.

We notice in the Kansas City Journal last Thursday a statement to the effect that the management of the N. T. I. & M. R. R. have been offered $40,000 to change their line in this county. It is presumed our friends down below who are offering this amount are now, as was before, full of lip service, but after all very little cash. Their bonds, if voted, would be worthless, and as for raising that amount in cash—it is extremely doubtful if they could that many cents.

While driving near the Wichita depot Tuesday forenoon Marsh Harts team became frightened at the incoming train, becoming unmanageable they soon tipped the wagon over, broke the traces and were off on a run. In their runaway they brought up against a wire fence, one turning completely over the fence falling on its back, the other not so fortunate was left astride the barbed wire. The latter was severely injured and may not recover. No damage was done the driver or wagon, except to break the dash board.

Two lightning rod men from Ottawa, Kansas, were brought over from Woodson county and lodged in the Allen county jail last week, charged with defrauding some of the susceptible citizens of the first named county. A preliminary examination was held at Yates Center and they were bound over to appear at the next term of court. Friday an application for a writ of habeas corpus was made by their attorneys, a lawyer from Ottawa and J. H. Richards, of Iola. The case was heard Saturday when the writ was refused by Judge Talcott.

Tuesday morning about eight o'clock fire was discovered in the rear of B. Dawson's store at Moran. which is generally supposed to have been the work of an incendiary. It was first discovered by Mrs. Dawson (the family live upstairs) who gave the alarm. No one was in the store at the time and when the first parties arrived it was difficult to discover where the fire was on account of the smoke. Mr. Dawson lost about $300 on stock and $100 on the building. No insurance. We are informed that the building is repaired and Mr. D. is again selling goods as before. The principal damage was in the dry goods department, although some damage was done the groceries by smoke and water.

Funston for Congress.

The other day a friend of ours said, "I tell you McElroy there's a good deal in that man Funston, and it would be eminently proper if he should receive the nomination for Congressman-at-large, from this District." Our friend is correct. Senator Funston is one of the best and truest men of the Republican party, and he would be a strong candidate, and should he conclude to shirk his castor in the ring, he would receive strong support in this and many other counties in the State. We have not seen him for some weeks and do not know whether he really intends to be a candidate, but should he conclude to give him warm and cordial support.—Humboldt Union.

Ben Franklin is authority for the statement that when a man pays more for the rent of his business house than for advertising his business, he is pursuing a false policy. If you can do business let it be known.

"A party by the name of Johnson" gives the Topeka Capital great agony lately. Really our ex-candidate for Governor seems to be somewhat galled.

A Missouri real estate agent advertises that "Jessie James is dead; immigrants can come to Missouri with perfect safety."

The Inter-State did not come to hand last week and it was reported that it was played out, but we are now informed it will flicker along awhile longer.

A. D. Curtis has the most advanced piece we have seen this spring.
J. P. Davis prompts us this week thus: "Every body is done planting corn but I have just commenced to plow."
Board meeting Saturday.
Rev. Q. C. Todd will preach at the stone church Sunday, May 7th at the usual hour, being 3 o'clock p. m. and at the close of Sunday-school. He may be expected to do so every alternate Sabbath until further notice.

Rev. J. L. Longdon, of Neosho Falls, will preach in the academy building, May 7, at 11 o'clock, a. m.
Rev. J. A. Richards, of Fort Scott, occupied the congregational pulpit last Sabbath at 3 o'clock and delivered a full house an able, touching discourse. Call this way again, Bro. Richards.

Savonburg Siftings.

April 24.—Corn planting is about done. The last two days have been cold enough to sit around the fires and wear overcoats.
Miss Adella Bennett is up from Ft. Scott visiting her father and step-mother.
Mr. Jacob Rayner, one of our old time citizens who has been living in Coffey county for several years, has moved back among us again and has rented John Pearson's farm for which he pays $2 per acre for land which has not been plowed this year and $3 for that which has been plowed.
Mr. John Lea lost a valuable horse recently.
Our school is under good headway with Mr. M. F. Marks as teacher. We can say that we are having the best school, so far, that has ever been taught in our district.
The people will meet at this place next Sunday to organize a Sunday-school; we are glad to hear of such, they are a benefit to a neighborhood.
John Keen has purchased a new buggy recently.
J. T. Meredith, of Chard, and Dan. Freed, of this place, have purchased a threshing machine and are ready to accommodate the people when the time rolls around.
Mr. Ross Smith's little boy was killed the other day by a kick from a horse. Tony.

West of the River.

April 25.—The cool weather of last week was unfavorable for planted corn.
Union school closes next Friday with Miss Harris as teacher.
As we did not have time last week to report the particulars of the storm of the 18th we will say that the oldest inhabitant of this vicinity never saw anything to equal it. In size the hail stones would average from 5 to 1 1/2 inches in diameter, and numerous enough to cover the ground, and they came with such force as to not only break the glass out of west windows but the sash also, and to penetrate the roofs of houses and barns, and in many places knocking the bark off of the trees. The heaviest losses along the river are Lawyer and Jones which are literally cut to pieces. Dave Loran and Frank Layner were planting corn at the time when the hail struck the horses; they ran away but Dave being of a bull dog disposition held onto the lines after being thrown from the plow while the horses dragged him through the brush tearing off part of his clothing. He finally got them against a wire fence and stopped them without serious damage except the welts the boys and horses got from the hail, all happening in less time than it takes to tell. Mr. Munger and little boy Berle were also caught while planting corn. It kept Mr. M. busy to take care of his team, Berle taking the hail without a coat. There were other incidents happened which we have not the room to mention.

Carlyle Letter.

Editor Register:—I see that you are patient and forbearing with your garrulous contributors, else I should not risk this sheet finding a dishonorable grave in the waste basket. But even the poorest correspondent may hope to add something to the variety demanded by the numerous tastes of an exacting public.
Spring has come and all the outdoor world is gay with bloom and song, and why should not we grave, practical people become chatty and sociable, though it be through the medium of the long suffering Editor.
This is a busy time of the year for hand and brain. If we fail to sow we will fail to reap. We must plant our bed of vegetables, gather up our flower seeds, rake the door-yard, tie up the vines and trim the rose bushes.
When the spring flowers and buds awaken from their long sleep, if we but stop and think, it seems good to be alive when so many have passed away since the last falling of the leaves; and with new nature all around us new hopes are kindled and new life is awakened within us. Good resolutions formed long ago, perhaps, are uncorrected and again it seems possible for us to have the ability to put them into force. And we had best stop and ask ourselves if any good has resulted from our having lived at all, and if we are doing all that we can toward making life all that is possible for this life to be for ourselves and others.
Those who say the Aurora borealis on Sunday night, the 16th inst., enjoyed a rare treat. It presented a perfection in form and coloring to seldom or often seen in this latitude. Only a few years ago that beautiful phenomenon and comets were looked upon with superstitious dread. But the farmers in this vicinity had little time for "star gazing" nothing but work, work from morning till night is to be thought of. One might think that the average farmer prophesied that they are not going to raise anything this year, not even a mortgage, although one or more were planted on the farm years ago.
Every alternate Sunday Rev. S. M. Irwin, with an impartial hand, dispenses the bread of life to the saints and sinners of Carlyle.
We may blame ourselves in this part of the State over the prospect for fruit, while the crop north and east has been badly nipped by the frost.
The recent hailstorm knocked off and bruised some fruit but to no great extent considering many of the hailstones were as large as walnuts.
The prospect for a general crop of farm products is considered good, though some old farmers prophesied that they are not going to raise anything this year, not even a mortgage, although one or more were planted on the farm years ago.
Stock are now on grass doing well.
People generally healthy and well abiding, consequently this part of the country I suppose we may consider ourselves a reasonably prosperous people. M. B. M.

The Holden (Mo.) Enterprise of recent date has the following kind words for Dr. Randall and family who have located in Iola.

Dr. Randall assumes charge of the medical department of the mineral well. Dr. I. P. Randall and family have gone to Iola Springs, Kansas, where they will spend the summer. Dr. Randall moved to Holden in 1870, purchased lots and built a residence, and lived here ever since that time. When he came here Holden was small and in its infancy but he was far-sighted enough to see in its infantile organism the foreshadowing of a town of prominence and wealth, such as it has since grown to be. After arriving here he at once entered upon the practice of his profession which he continued to do up to the time of his leaving. As a physician he occupies a high position among his professional brethren and always commanded a good patronage. Dr. Randall was not only a successful physician, but a man of medicine and for the services he rendered our people in a professional way, but was also esteemed for his many noble traits of character. When settling in Holden he united with the Christian church, having been a member of that society for a long while, and was chosen elder in which capacity he labored both in word and doctrine for nine years. He is an ardent worker in the cause of temperance and moral reforms of every character. In the removal of these excellent people from our midst we have lost valued champions of all that is good and ennobling. May good wishes follow them to their temporary home.

There cannot now be any possible doubt as to the early completion of the N. T. I. & M. R. R.

The writer in company with Mr. E. Robinson, had an interview on last Tuesday and Wednesday with Caleb H. Malin superintendent of construction and J. H. Richards, attorney for the road. A large enterprise like this of course cannot be put on its feet in a week nor in a month. Eastern capitalists fully appreciate the importance of this road and they look upon it with greater favor than upon any other road now in contemplation. Mr. Clark & Son, of Chicago, have the contract for COMPLETING the first fifty miles of this road, commencing at Girard. This will bring it a few miles this side of Iola. Seventeen miles have been graded and are ready for the ties and iron. The bridge timbers are framed and material is being purchased and will soon be accumulated at Girard. The object is to commence track laying forthwith and start a construction train to forward material on the road. Propositions are now being entertained to build the road from Iola to Topeka and it is probable that the contract will be let in about thirty days. The promoters of the enterprise understand full well the condition of the soil and character of the work to be done in Woodson and Coffey counties. The road will run through the river bottom where it will be nearly impossible to do any grading in a wet season. The intention is, therefore, to finish the road at least as far as Le Roy or Burlington before December next. As soon as this part of the road is completed it will begin to do a paying business in the transportation of grain, stock or coal. At Girard it has a good outlet on the St. L. & San Francisco railroad.

The original plan of striking the Mississippi river at or near Memphis will perhaps be abandoned and a more southern route sought to Vicksburg, a point far superior to Memphis as a shipping point, inasmuch as ocean steamers now come up that far without breaking bulk. The route is also said to be easier and the resources of the country in timber, grain and mineral far exceed those of the more northern route to Memphis. Capitalists from Chicago are already down in Arkansas investing in timber lands with the expectation of having that country opened up in the near future. Thus the proposed route loses its seeming local character and assumes the dimensions of one of the grandest highways of commerce in the United States.—Le Roy Reporter.

The Topeka Daily Capital.

One of the most striking newspaper successes in Kansas, has been seen in the growth and present prosperity of the Daily Capital. Starting as a five-column evening paper, it has grown to metropolitan proportions, and is now the largest daily in the State, and published every day in the year. A strong stock company was formed to build up a large, first-class daily at the Capitol of the State. The company occupied three floors, each 26x130 feet. The engine room, press room, job department and book bindery, news room editorial room and business office, are each and all most completely fitted up for the best of work. Every department is thoroughly and systematically organized; and, taken all in all, it is one of the most complete newspaper establishments in the West.

The Daily and Weekly Capital are both splendid specimens of newspaper enterprise, and worthy the fine support now extended to them throughout the State.
